

2024 Event Overview

Investor Exchange

February 20, 2024 and October 30, 2024

The Investor Exchange is an exclusive event designed for investors of The Right Place, where we bring together industry experts from an array of sectors to explore current challenges, gain valuable insights, and discuss topics that directly impact their businesses.

Supply Chain Management Conference

March 13, 2024

The Supply Chain Management Conference is a full day event that brings together more than 300 manufacturing and supply chain professionals to learn about future trends, emerging technologies in manufacturing, and navigating the future of their industry.

Go Beyond

June 12, 2024

Go Beyond is a full day event designed to unite mid-career-level women and non-binary folks in STEAM, fostering professional collaboration, and facilitating partnerships, informal sharing, and mentoring relationships.

Developer Day

June 12, 2024

Developer Day provides an inside look at emerging development opportunity sites for residential, commercial, and industrial purposes in the region. Attendees can opt for guided, on-site tours led by local municipal leaders across various cities, towns, villages, and townships in the Greater Grand Rapids region.

Tech Week Grand Rapids

September 16 - 21, 2024

Tech Week Grand Rapids is a multi-day collection of events designed to showcase the region's vibrant tech community. With events ranging from hands-on tech exhibits and panel discussions, to pitch competitions and networking opportunities, there is something for everyone at Tech Week Grand Rapids.

Place Matters Summit

November 13, 2024

The Place Matters Summit gathers community leaders from various sectors including local government, business, non-profit, and association industries to engage in meaningful discussions, gain valuable insights, and be inspired to take proactive steps in nurturing vibrant communities and neighborhoods.

Economic Outlook for 2025

December 5, 2024

At the annual Economic Outlook event, guests will gain invaluable insights into the future of the Greater Grand Rapids region, the State of Michigan, and the nation, empowering attendees to proactively prepare both themselves and their business for a successful future.